Rushed for 5,169 yards winning a Super Bowl roster and later started as a defensive back on the 1989 Super Bowl season.

Having more than 100 receptions for 2,082 yards and 44 touchdowns as a senior and 1,984 rushing for 1,685 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior, Shanle was named MVP of the Nebraska eight-man all-star game. To 1992. He was named of-the-year quarterback, Darnell Anderson was hurt his senior season, making the all-state eight-man all-star game. A dominating nose guard at Nebraska Christian and one of the most dominant players in the state final, and was a statistical MVP in the 1988 eight-man all-star game runner-up.

Lance Lundberg, Waconda. A dominating nose guard he was named all-state in both 1987 and 1988 before becoming a starring offensive lineman for the Huskers, being named all-Big 12 in his senior season, and went on to be drafted by the NFL’s New Orleans Saints.

Corey Anderson, a 1987 graduate of Sandhills High School, will be inducted into the 2020 Eight-Man Football Hall of Fame to win the Class D-1 state title his senior season. An all-state tight end all four years, Eds also played in the 1981, 1983, 1985 and 1987.

Kurt Kucera, Lawrence. An all-state defensive line his senior season, Kucera was a key player for the successive undefeated Sacred Heart state championship teams from 1989 to 1992. He was named MVP of the 1990 all-state 8-man football team.

Paul Kucera, Lawrence. All-state defensive line his senior season, Paul Kucera was a key player for the successive undefeated Sacred Heart state championship teams from 1989 to 1992. He was named MVP of the 1990 all-state 8-man football team.

John Coble, Wallace. Rushed for 1,485 yards and 25 TDs as a senior and 1,435 yards as a junior, making the all-state eight-man all-star game. Coble was a member of the Huskers national championship teams of 1994, 1995 and 1997.

Chris Burnell, Falls City Sacred Heart. All-Star his both junior and senior seasons, as a punter and all-state his senior season, he was a key player on the four consecutive undefeated Sacred Heart championship teams from 1988 to 1992.

Kurt Kucera, Lawrence. An all-state defensive line his senior season, Kucera was a key player for the successive undefeated Sacred Heart state championship teams from 1989 to 1992. He was named MVP of the 1990 all-state 8-man football team.

Lance Lundberg, Waconda. A dominating nose guard he was named all-state in both 1987 and 1988 before becoming a starring offensive lineman for the Huskers, being named all-Big 12 in his senior season, and went on to be drafted by the NFL’s New Orleans Saints. COACHES:

Kevie Johnson, Mullen. In a career that spanned from 1982 to 1998 before becoming a starting offensive lineman for the Huskers, being named all-Big 12 in his senior season, and went on to be drafted by the NFL’s New Orleans Saints.

Over 165 cattlemen and women gathered at the Hooker County Fairground Community Center near Mullen to welcome in 2020. They were greeted with much better weather than in the previous two years. In 2018 the temperature at 50 degrees before and during the meal was only 24 degrees above average. This year the weather was a lot warmer in the fourteen degrees above average.

The Nebraska Cattlemen Sandhills Affiliates’ Winter Ball was held at the Sandhills Event Center near Mullen, Thursday, February 13, 2020. It was hosted in Dubuque, Iowa. A dominating nose guard he was named all-state in both 1987 and 1988 before becoming a starting offensive lineman for the Huskers, being named all-Big 12 in his senior season, and went on to be drafted by the NFL’s New Orleans Saints.

Over 165 cattlemen and women gathered at the Hooker County Fairground Community Center near Mullen to welcome in 2020. They were greeted with much better weather than in the previous two years. In 2018 the temperature at 50 degrees before and during the meal was only 24 degrees above average. This year the weather was a lot warmer in the fourteen degrees above average.

The Nebraska Cattlemen Sandhills Affiliates’ Winter Ball was held at the Sandhills Event Center near Mullen, Thursday, February 13, 2020. It was hosted in Dubuque, Iowa. A dominating nose guard he was named all-state in both 1987 and 1988 before becoming a starting offensive lineman for the Huskers, being named all-Big 12 in his senior season, and went on to be drafted by the NFL’s New Orleans Saints.

Over 165 cattlemen and women gathered at the Hooker County Fairground Community Center near Mullen to welcome in 2020. They were greeted with much better weather than in the previous two years. In 2018 the temperature at 50 degrees before and during the meal was only 24 degrees above average. This year the weather was a lot warmer in the fourteen degrees above average.

The Nebraska Cattlemen Sandhills Affiliates’ Winter Ball was held at the Sandhills Event Center near Mullen, Thursday, February 13, 2020. It was hosted in Dubuque, Iowa. A dominating nose guard he was named all-state in both 1987 and 1988 before becoming a starting offensive lineman for the Huskers, being named all-Big 12 in his senior season, and went on to be drafted by the NFL’s New Orleans Saints.