Reece Zutavern was second in the Class D 160 pound weight class of the 2020 NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Blake Racicky of Ansel-Litchfield; 2nd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 3rd Place - Logan Parson of Howells-Dodge; 4th Place - Jackson Feulner of Thayer Central; 5th Place - Tyler Coleman of Hemingford; 6th Place - Derek Gibson of Maxwell.

The Sandhills-Thedford Knights Wrestling competed in the 2020 Ne-braska School Activities Association Class D Wrestling Championships Thursday, February 20, in Omaha. The Knights had four wrestlers compete in the championships and two brought home medals for their efforts. Sandhills High School sophomore, Reece Zutavern (160) finished 3rd in the Class D 160 pound class. He was matched up against senior, Blake Racicky, Ansel-Litchfield, (50- 2) and lost the first place round by decision, 6-2. Bryan Zutavern, (50-12) wrestled for the Class D 285 weight class. See inside this issue on page 7, for complete results for the Knights and pictures from the State Tournament.

Bryan Zutavern was third in the Class D 182 pound weight class of the 2020 NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Corey Dawe of Burwell; 2nd Place - Reece Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 3rd Place - Jarrett Parsons of High Plains Community; 4th Place - Jackson Feulner of Thayer Central; 5th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 6th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Payne Named February NPCC Student Of The Month A woman from Dunning has been selected as the February Student Of The Month of the NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Cody Gavey of Burwell; 2nd Place - Daylan Russell of Alma; 3rd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 4th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 5th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Tropers with the Ne-braska State Patrol were called to assist the Custer County Sheriff’s Office with a standoff situation at 6:16 a.m. Monday, Feb-ruary 23, at a residence in northeast Custer County on Dunning Road, northeast of Arnold. The situation had began with a report of a suicide attempt. NPF negotiators re-port to the scene and began communicating with the subject, identi-fied as Print Zutavern, 28. Zutavern then killed his father, An-swered his father’s command, and moved toward a UTV. As Zutavern ap-proached the UTV, he refused to remove his hands from his pocket. The trooper then dis-charged his duty weapon, striking Zutavern. Troopers and emer-gency medical technicians began life-saving ef-forts immediately. Zutavern was transported to Great Plains Hospital in North Platte where he succumbed to his in-juries.

A woman from Dunning has been selected as the February Student Of The Month of the NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Cody Gavey of Burwell; 2nd Place - Daylan Russell of Alma; 3rd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 4th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 5th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Stand-off ends with shooting near Arnold

Troopers with the Ne-braska State Patrol were called to assist the Custer County Sheriff’s Office with a standoff situation at 6:16 a.m. Monday, Feb-ruary 23, at a residence in northeast Custer County on Dunning Road, northeast of Arnold. The situation had began with a report of a suicide attempt. NPF negotiators re-port to the scene and began communicating with the subject, identi-fied as Print Zutavern, 28. Zutavern then killed his father, An-swered his father’s command, and moved toward a UTV. As Zutavern ap-proached the UTV, he refused to remove his hands from his pocket. The trooper then dis-charged his duty weapon, striking Zutavern. Troopers and emer-gency medical technicians began life-saving ef-forts immediately. Zutavern was transported to Great Plains Hospital in North Platte where he succumbed to his in-juries.

A woman from Dunning has been selected as the February Student Of The Month of the NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Cody Gavey of Burwell; 2nd Place - Daylan Russell of Alma; 3rd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 4th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 5th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

The Sandhills-Thedford Knights Wrestling competed in the 2020 Ne-braska School Activities Association Class D Wrestling Championships Thursday, February 20, in Omaha. The Knights had four wrestlers compete in the championships and two brought home medals for their efforts. Sandhills High School sophomore, Reece Zutavern (160) finished 3rd in the Class D 160 pound class. He was matched up against senior, Blake Racicky, Ansel-Litchfield, (50- 2) and lost the first place round by decision, 6-2. Bryan Zutavern, (50-12) wrestled for the Class D 285 weight class. See inside this issue on page 7, for complete results for the Knights and pictures from the State Tournament.

Bryan Zutavern was third in the Class D 182 pound weight class of the 2020 NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Corey Dawe of Burwell; 2nd Place - Reece Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 3rd Place - Jarrett Parsons of High Plains Community; 4th Place - Jackson Feulner of Thayer Central; 5th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 6th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Payne Named February NPCC Student Of The Month A woman from Dunning has been selected as the February Student Of The Month of the NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Cody Gavey of Burwell; 2nd Place - Daylan Russell of Alma; 3rd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 4th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 5th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Troopers with the Ne-braska State Patrol were called to assist the Custer County Sheriff’s Office with a standoff situation at 6:16 a.m. Monday, Feb-ruary 23, at a residence in northeast Custer County on Dunning Road, northeast of Arnold. The situation had began with a report of a suicide attempt. NPF negotiators re-port to the scene and began communicating with the subject, identi-fied as Print Zutavern, 28. Zutavern then killed his father, An-swered his father’s command, and moved toward a UTV. As Zutavern ap-proached the UTV, he refused to remove his hands from his pocket. The trooper then dis-charged his duty weapon, striking Zutavern. Troopers and emer-gency medical technicians began life-saving ef-forts immediately. Zutavern was transported to Great Plains Hospital in North Platte where he succumbed to his in-juries.

A woman from Dunning has been selected as the February Student Of The Month of the NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Cody Gavey of Burwell; 2nd Place - Daylan Russell of Alma; 3rd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 4th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 5th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Stand-off ends with shooting near Arnold

Troopers with the Ne-braska State Patrol were called to assist the Custer County Sheriff’s Office with a standoff situation at 6:16 a.m. Monday, Feb-ruary 23, at a residence in northeast Custer County on Dunning Road, northeast of Arnold. The situation had began with a report of a suicide attempt. NPF negotiators re-port to the scene and began communicating with the subject, identi-fied as Print Zutavern, 28. Zutavern then killed his father, An-swered his father’s command, and moved toward a UTV. As Zutavern ap-proached the UTV, he refused to remove his hands from his pocket. The trooper then dis-charged his duty weapon, striking Zutavern. Troopers and emer-gency medical technicians began life-saving ef-forts immediately. Zutavern was transported to Great Plains Hospital in North Platte where he succumbed to his in-juries.

A woman from Dunning has been selected as the February Student Of The Month of the NSAA State Championship Wrestling Tournament. The placings for this weight bracket were: 1st Place - Cody Gavey of Burwell; 2nd Place - Daylan Russell of Alma; 3rd Place - Bryan Zutavern of Sandhills/Thedford; 4th Place - Kolby Larson of Ansel-Litchfield; 5th Place - Cash Meier of Guardian Angels Central C; 6th Place - Trevor Schumacher of Howells-Dodge.

Stand-off ends with shooting near Arnold

Troopers with the Ne-braska State Patrol were called to assist the Custer County Sheriff’s Office with a standoff situation at 6:16 a.m. Monday, Feb-ruary 23, at a residence in northeast Custer County on Dunning Road, northeast of Arnold. The situation had began with a report of a suicide attempt. NPF negotiators re-port to the scene and began communicating with the subject, identi-fied as Print Zutavern, 28. Zutavern then killed his father, An-swered his father’s command, and moved toward a UTV. As Zutavern ap-proached the UTV, he refused to remove his hands from his pocket. The trooper then dis-charged his duty weapon, striking Zutavern. Troopers and emer-gency medical technicians began life-saving ef-forts immediately. Zutavern was transported to Great Plains Hospital in North Platte where he succumbed to his in-juries.