Quote: “The life that conquers is the life that moves with a steady resolution and persistence toward a predetermined goal. Those who succeed are those who have thoroughly learned the immense importance of plan in life, and the tragic brevity of time.”

W.J. Davison
“I believe the single most significant decision I can make on a day to day basis is my choice of attitude. It is more important than my past, my education, my bankroll, my successes or failures, fame or pain, what others think or say to me, my circumstances, or my position. Attitude keeps me going or cripples my progress. It alone fuels my fire or assaults my hope. When my attitudes are right, there is no barrier too high, no valley too deep, no dream too extreme, no challenge too great for me.”

While rambling around the internet, I found the following and thought it interesting.

7 RULES OF LIFE:

1. Make peace with your past, so it won’t mess up the present.
2. What others think of you is none of your business.
3. Time heals almost everything, give it time.
4. Don’t compare your life to others and don’t judge them. You have no idea what their journey is all about.

5. Stop thinking too much. It’s alright not to know the answers. They will come when you least expect it.
6. No one is in charge of your happiness, except you.
- 7 Smile. You don’t own all the problems in the world.

Good advice for all of us.

BE STILL

“Be still my child,” the good Lord said
He didn’t mean to follow my own stubborn head.

“Be still” means to wait for His wise lead,
Not to go off on our own without heed.

“Be still” doesn’t mean that you’re on the right path,
Doing what you want can bring its own wrath.

“Be still” means to wait and to trust,
To be quietly still without any fuss.

It’s so hard to be still when all seems right,
Doing your own thing doesn’t rely on God’s might.

Waiting on God teaches patience they say.
Sometimes that waiting can make a long stay.

“Be quiet and heed My Word” is the heart of it all.
We just have to wait for the Savior’s clear call.

His Ways are not ours as He speaks to our heart.
“Be patiently still” and He will tell you where to start.
