Red Ribbon Week at Stapleton Public Schools

Red Ribbon Week was observed in November at Stapleton Public Schools. The first day was "Scare Away Drugs," and students wore their Halloween costumes for the day. The second day was "Career Day." Students dressed up in what they wanted to be when they grow up. Their future is free to be who they want to be. The classrooms were glowing with "Neon Day" because our students are too bright for drugs. "Superheroes" day was Thursday to fight against drugs. The rooms were full of "Red" as they wore their red clothing to celebrate Red Ribbon Week. Red Ribbon Week is the nation's largest and longest-running drug-use prevention campaign. It was established as a grassroots, nonprofit organization in 1980 by a handful of concerned and determined parents who were convinced they should begin to play a leadership role in drug prevention. Since its founding 30 years ago, NFP has devoted its efforts to the well-being of youth. It is now a national leader in drug prevention education and advocacy. Their mission is to lead and support our nation's families and communities in nurturing the full potential of healthy, drug free youth.
